

STD Enhanced Role Registered Nurse (ERRN)
Clinical Skills Assessment
N.C. Division of Public Health – Epidemiology – Communicable Disease Branch
Medical Consultation Unit – Technical Assistance & Training Program

STD ERRN Name: _____

County: _____

Date: _____

STD ERRN Email: _____

Evaluator: _____

Observation # ____ of ____

Rating Scale

1 = Needs Improvement	Lacks skill(s) to adequately perform essential elements
2 = Satisfactory	Demonstrates adequate skills to perform essential elements but could benefit from coaching to enhance skills
3 = Excellent	Demonstrates all essential elements
NA = Non-applicable	Evaluation of element is non-applicable

Evaluator:

Indicate client's chief complaint:

Medical Record # _____
Male ___ Female ___

ESSENTIAL ELEMENTS		N/A	1	2	3	COMMENTS
1	History and Risk Assessment
	a. how long did it take to get appointment ____ days	X	X	X	X
	b. elicits reason for visit obtains essential history
	c. uses client-centered interviewing skills
	d. if indicated, obtains pregnancy test before exam
	e. uses nonjudgmental approach
2	Physical Examination
	a. inspects hair, skin, lymphatics, and oropharynx (specifically checks for rashes, swelling and lesions)
	b. palpates abdomen for pain, performs bimanual on females
	c. inspects male or female genitalia
	d. inspects anal/peri-anal region
	e. assesses other systems as indicated
	f. obtains vital signs as indicated
3	Laboratory Specimen Collection
	a. washes hands and dons gloves appropriately
	b. anticipates routine supplies needed to collect specimens based on history of signs/symptoms and standing orders
	c. maintains clean technique – preventing cross-contamination
	d. correctly labels and timely transports specimens to the lab

STD Enhanced Role Registered Nurse (ERRN)
Clinical Skills Assessment
N.C. Division of Public Health – Epidemiology – Communicable Disease Branch
Medical Consultation Unit – Technical Assistance & Training Program

4 Assessment and Treatment		N/A	1	2	3
a. records impressions of physical exam (PE)
b. records onsite lab test results
c. uses subjective and objective findings to make assessment per standing orders
d. selects appropriate treatments per standing orders 5 Medical Consultation and Referral
a. consults with physician/mid-level provider as needed during visit
b. provides referrals after consultation with physician/mid-level provider
c. If consult is not indicated, can state correctly when to obtain a consult 6 Education and Counseling
a. provides STD/STI and treatment education
b. provides written information
c. assists client in identifying personal STD/STI risk factors
d. counsels client about a realistic risk reduction plan
e. advises client about follow-up 7 Documentation
a. legibly completes the paper medical record and/or completes documentation in electronic health record (EHR) Vendor: _____
b. signs medical record appropriately 8 Billing, Coding and Medical Record Documentation
a. ERRN time documented in minutes & units
b. Uses correct E/M code 99211 or T1002 and/or LU codes appropriately (LU242-non ERRN; LU282-STD ERRN)
c. Uses correct CPT codes for procedures
d. Uses correct ICD10 codes for diagnosis(es) determined by standing orders.

STD Enhanced Role Registered Nurse (ERRN)
Clinical Skills Assessment
N.C. Division of Public Health – Epidemiology – Communicable Disease Branch
Medical Consultation Unit – Technical Assistance & Training Program

If Corrective Action Plan is Required: (check all that apply)

Stop clinical practice. Attend 3 day part-time intensive session with AL/NC STD HIV PTC

Work with colleague as clinical advisor for _____ months

_____ STD ERRN TATP Nurse Consultant will reassess within _____ months

Signature of Evaluated STD ERRN

Date

Signature of Evaluator

Date

Signature of LHD's Nursing Supervisor

Date

Misc. Notes: